

"Attorney Sheldon Boyce acting on behalf of Brenna, Brenna & Boyce, PLLC has been Special Counsel to the Town of Farmington. He has primarily handled cases involving possible litigation or actual litigation. His ability to see both sides of an equation has made him a valuable counselor as we have settled several potential litigation issues without the expense of costly court actions. I believe this is important especially in this litigious society. Sheldon Boyce has been easy to work with and has accommodated the town's legislative processes to get to the core of issues and presented advice in a clear and concise manner so that the town board can make informed decisions. I would recommend him without reservation, especially in dealing with any matter that could result in litigation or arbitration." -Theodore M. Fafinski, Farmington Town Supervisor
